

DEEP SOUTH PRODUCTIONS

AN ARTIST PARTNERSHIP · DILLON CARMICHAEL

ARTIST CREDITS · PARTNERSHIP STORY

Basically family.

Dillon Carmichael on why Marvin and Deep South Productions are part of what keeps him on the road.

DILLON CARMICHAEL / RECORDING ARTIST

Real people, checking in.

THE RELATIONSHIP

More than a vendor

Recording artist Dillon Carmichael credits Marvin and the Deep South Productions team with the kind of hands-on, personal support that keeps a touring show running.

In his words, DSP is run by “real people, great people with great big ol’ hearts”, and he describes the relationship as basically family.

WHAT THE PARTNERSHIP INCLUDES

Professional support for the tour

A team that stays professional while bringing the best selection of equipment a tour may need.

Consistent check-ins to make sure the artist and crew have what they need on the road.

This summary stays within the details Dillon Carmichael shared with Marvin; specific inventory, tour dates, and locations are not added.

Dillon Carmichael image, shared for this story.

“At this point we are basically family and I certainly wouldn’t be able to hit the road without them and that’s a fact.”

DILLON CARMICHAEL · RECORDING ARTIST

Ready for the road.

A touring partner is more than the gear on the truck. It is people who stay professional, bring the right equipment, and keep checking in until the show is covered.

01 Real people with big hearts

Carmichael describes Marvin and the DSP team as real people, great people with great big ol' hearts.

02 Professional, with the right equipment

He says DSP knows how to be professional while having the best selection of any equipment a tour may need.

03 Always checking in

The team is always checking in and making sure the artist and crew have what they need.

What the partnership demonstrates

Professional crew · Tour equipment · Ongoing check-ins · Road support

Dillon Carmichael image, shared for this story.

Can't hit the road without them.

“Marvin & DSP is ran by real people, great people with great big ol’ hearts. They know how to be professional, while having the best selection of any equipment you may need for a tour. They are always checking in and making sure we have what we need. At this point we are basically family and I certainly wouldn’t be able to hit the road without them and that’s a fact.”

DILLON CARMICHAEL · RECORDING ARTIST

Basically family

How Dillon Carmichael describes the relationship.

Best selection

Equipment for whatever the tour may need.

Always checking in

Making sure the crew has what it needs.

Artist voice

Quote sent by Dillon Carmichael directly to Marvin.

Need a production partner who feels like part of the crew?

Talk with Deep South Productions about touring production, equipment, and support for your next run.